

CRISIS RESPONSE COMPANY

Case Study

Advisory Services

Crisis Response Company (CRC) provides Program Management expertise, Subject Matter Experts (SME's), Senior Advisors, and consulting services for clients across a broad spectrum of fields.

CRC provides Site Coordinators, Security Sector Reform Advisors, and Senior Advisors across Sub-Saharan Africa for a Department of State client. This includes providing advisor to senior levels of government to include Presidents, Vice Presidents, Ministers of Defense (MOD), Commanders of Defense Force (Chief of Defense), Security Sector Reform Functionaries, and African Union Directorates in multiple countries across Africa. Our advisors are trusted to provide clarity and guidance directly influencing executive actions in foreign nations on behalf of the U.S. Government. Our Site Coordinators provide the eyes and ears for the Department of State in Africa monitoring and advising on the execution, compliance, and operational requirements for U.S. Government Contractors and support efforts across the continent.

For another client, CRC provided a security assessment for a large public venue and planned event. The assessment determined that there were significant security concerns and that a named terrorist organizations had specific plans to target the event. CRC provided the SME's to conduct the assessment, provide alternate courses of action, a mitigation plan, monitored the threat and related chatter, and executed the mitigation plan flawlessly. The event was executed flawlessly with no security issues and appropriate risk mitigations in place and supported by four agencies.

For More Information Contact Us:
admin@crc-intl.com
www.crc-intl.com

In addition, we provide program management expertise to manage business functions and oversee their contracts. This includes supporting planning, staffing, logistics, execution, and billing and has directly added over 5 million in revenue to the clients' business line.