

Logistics Advisor, Djibouti

Established in 2009, the Partnership for Regional East Africa Counterterrorism (PRACT) is a U.S. Government multi-year interagency regional program, overseen by the Department of State, to build the capacity and resilience of East African governments and civil society to contain the spread of, and ultimately counter the threat posed by, al-Qa'ida, al-Shabaab, and other violent extremist groups.

Across East Africa, al-Shabaab, al-Qaida, the Islamic State, and associated violent extremist organizations continue to exploit political unrest, weak governance, insecurity, and ethnic conflicts to expand their reach and commit atrocities. Regional governments are intensifying their efforts to counter these threats and strengthen security. The United States has a strong interest in supporting and enhancing these regional efforts

In support of this, Crisis Response Company (CRC) is seeking a qualified Logistics Advisor in Djibouti to support our contract with the Department of State, Bureau of African Affairs, Office of Security Affairs (AF/SA). The objective of this position is to work with the Djiboutian Armed Forces (FAD) to provide logistics and operations support.
