

Operational Advisor, Mali

The Trans-Sahara Counterterrorism Partnership (TSCTP) is the United States Government's (USG) multi-year, multi-sector initiative to build the long-term capabilities of North and West African partners to contain, disrupt, and marginalize terrorist organizations and networks in the region. TSCTP partners include Algeria, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Chad, Libya, Mali, Mauritania, Morocco, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, and Tunisia.

Across the Trans-Sahara region, al-Qa'ida in the Islamic Maghreb (AQIM), Boko Haram, and associated violent extremist organizations continue to exploit political unrest, weak governance, insecurity, and ethnic conflicts to expand their reach and commit atrocities.

In support of this, Crisis Response Company (CRC) is seeking a qualified Operational Advisor in Mali to support our contract with the Department of State, Bureau of African Affairs, Office of Security Affairs (AF/SA). The objective of this position is to operational advisory services to the BAFS, Malian Armed Forces.

Duties and Responsibilities

- The Operational Advisor shall provide operational advisory services for up to a 120 person unit.
- At a minimum, advisory services shall include the use of tactical equipment with emphasis on infantry tactics, urban and rural environments, operations orders and troop leading processes, and mission planning and execution.
- The Operational Advisor shall ensure interoperability with the Le Groupement de Securite et d'Intervention de la Gendarmerie Nationale (GSIGN) units when applicable.
- The Operational Advisor shall coordinate all advisory activities with the U.S. Office of Security Cooperation, to ensure that advisory activities are complementary to existing U.S. assistance to Mali's security forces.

Key Personnel Required Qualifications

- Five (5) years' experience working in Africa, post-conflict, and/or developing nations.
- Ten (10) years' special operations experience.
- Two (2) years' experience advising foreign security or surrogate forces.
- U.S. citizen capable of maintaining a Secret clearance.
- French language skills (DLPT 2/2 or above) preferred.
