

Military Intelligence Advisor, Chad

The Trans-Sahara Counterterrorism Partnership (TSCTP) is the United States Government's (USG) multi-year, multi-sector initiative to build the long-term capabilities of North and West African partners to contain, disrupt, and marginalize terrorist organizations and networks in the region. TSCTP partners include Algeria, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Chad, Libya, Mali, Mauritania, Morocco, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, and Tunisia.

In support of this, Crisis Response Company (CRC) is seeking a qualified Military Intelligence Advisor to support our contract with the Department of State, Bureau of African Affairs, Office of Security Affairs (AF/SA).

Key Responsibilities

- Attend Chadian military staff meetings and planning sessions, as well as OSC contractor meetings.
- Provide expert technical guidance to the Chadian military to develop professional, effective and accountable military intelligence capabilities and standard operating procedures (SOP's).
- Advise on scheduled inspections, management, and acquisition.
- Provide technical assistance to adapt the Chadian military SOP's to reflect the process by which the Chadian military decides on specific course of action (COA)
- Assist with documenting and instituting new processes/COAs
- Provide advisory and mentor services to support DGRM on intelligence operations, intelligence support to mission command, and the operating of joint intelligence fusion cells
- Maintain an up-to-date list of outstanding requirements from Chadian military intelligence staff.
- Assess all data relating to equipment availability and make recommendations to improve operational readiness.
- As appropriate, the Advisor shall interface with other international advisors to stay current on needs, and de-conflict assistance

Key Personnel Required Qualifications

- Ten (10) years' hands-on U.S. military intelligence, or civilian Intelligence Specialist, experience at the S-2, G-2 or J-2 battalion level, or higher.
- Two (2) years' experience in a joint military environment.
- Two (2) years' experience advising foreign military or government.
- Two (2) years' experience providing training in an overseas environment.
- U.S. citizen capable of maintaining a Secret clearance.
- Professional experience writing business documents, such as reports, SITREPs, briefings, AARs, memoranda, letters, electronic mail, and training material, for consumption by military Commanders or civilian managers.
- Professional experience presenting briefings, SITREPs, training, and AARs for consumption by military Commanders or civilian managers.

CRC

- Highly-rated teamwork and collaboration skills, as demonstrated by awards, or above average performance reviews.
- Two (2) years' experience working or living in Africa, post-conflict, and/or developing nations.

About CRC

Crisis Response Company, LLC (CRC) is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) formed in 2009 by leaders who have captured and led numerous and recent peacekeeping operations on behalf of DoS, DoD, United Nations, the African Union, and Private Industry. CRC's leadership formed the company with a single goal to enable Governments and Private Industry succeed in Security Sector Reform/Transformation, Subject Matter Expert Manning, and Defense initiatives around the globe.