

Embedded Military Intelligence Advisor, Ethiopia

Established in 2009, the Partnership for Regional East Africa Counterterrorism (PRACT) is a U.S. Government multi-year interagency regional program, overseen by the Department of State, to build the capacity and resilience of East African governments and civil society to contain the spread of, and ultimately counter the threat posed by, al-Qa'ida, al-Shabaab, and other violent extremist groups.

In support of this, Crisis Response Company (CRC) is seeking a qualified Military Intelligence Advisor in Ethiopia to support our contract with the Department of State, Bureau of African Affairs, Office of Security Affairs (AF/SA).

Key Responsibilities

- Attend Ethiopian military staff meetings and planning sessions, as well as OSC contractor meetings.
- Provide expert technical guidance to the Ethiopian military to develop professional, effective and accountable military intelligence capabilities and standard operating procedures (SOP's).
- Advise on scheduled inspections, management, and acquisition.
- Provide technical assistance to adapt the Ethiopian military SOP's to reflect the process by which the Ethiopian military decides on specific course of action (COA)
- Assist with documenting and instituting new processes/COAs
- Provide advisory and mentor services to support intelligence operations, intelligence support to mission command, and the operating of joint intelligence fusion cells
- Maintain an up-to-date list of outstanding requirements from Ethiopian military intelligence staff.
- Assess all data relating to equipment availability and make recommendations to improve operational readiness.
- As appropriate, the Advisor shall interface with other international advisors to stay current on needs, and de-conflict assistance

Key Personnel Required Qualifications

- Ten (10) years' hands-on U.S. military intelligence, or civilian Intelligence Specialist, experience at the S-2, G-2 or J-2 battalion level, or higher.
- Two (2) years' experience in a joint military environment.
- Two (2) years' experience advising foreign military or government.
- Two (2) years' experience providing training in an overseas environment.
- U.S. citizen capable of maintaining a Secret clearance.
- Professional experience writing business documents, such as reports, SITREPs, briefings, AARs, memoranda, letters, electronic mail, and training material, for consumption by military Commanders or civilian managers.
- Professional experience presenting briefings, SITREPs, training, and AARs for consumption by military Commanders or civilian managers.

CRC

- Highly-rated teamwork and collaboration skills, as demonstrated by awards, or above average performance reviews.
- Two (2) years' experience working or living in Africa, post-conflict, and/or developing nations.

About CRC

Crisis Response Company, LLC (CRC) is a Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) formed in 2009 by leaders who have captured and led numerous and recent peacekeeping operations on behalf of DoS, DoD, United Nations, the African Union, and Private Industry. CRC's leadership formed the company with a single goal to enable Governments and Private Industry succeed in Security Sector Reform/Transformation, Subject Matter Expert Manning, and Defense initiatives around the globe.